

BLOGLODYTE'S QUICK GUIDE TO MAKING MONEY ONLINE

I just want to break this down for you because it IS so easy, even my dog can do it.

ADVERTISING

Others pay you to put their name, product or message in front of your audience through ads on your blog through sponsored or underwritten posts, product reviews and brand ambassadorship. Many forms of advertising are easy to set up and start. You can choose who you will work with.

AFFILIATE MARKETING

You earn a commission when your audience member buys a product or service you recommend. Promoting products you like in posts, emails, videos or podcasts. Partnering with others in their product launches. It is nice because You don't have to do the work of creating the product yourself.

Affiliate marketing is one of the more passive forms of income which means you can make money while you're not working. There are thousands and thousands of products or retailers to partner with.

ONLINE OR DIGITAL PRODUCTS

You create and sell a digital product like ebooks, ecourses, sites, apps, and code You are in full control of your products, from start to finish. You set your own pricing. You can pivot or change direction quickly.

YOUR SERVICES

You sell your time and Expertise. Have you heard of consulting. This is it! Other ideas are Virtual assistance, consulting or coaching, website building or developing and writing

PHYSICAL PRODUCTS

Handmade goods and private label goods and manufactured merchandise. What do you make that you can sell?